

2025 Becoming a Certified Synergetic Play Therapy Supervisor Program Application Checklist

Before submitting your application for the 2025 Becoming a Certified Synergetic Play Therapy Supervisor program, please go through the checklist below and collect any necessary items. This checklist will help you fast track your application and limit the need for additional back and forth with the SPTI staff.

If you are unsure if you meet any of the requirements, below, please contact the Institute by emailing info@synergeticplaytherapy.com for support.

Required Prerequisites:

- Hold "current" status of the "Certified Synergetic Play Therapist" credential.
- Hold a current and valid license (or the equivalent in your state/country), to provide mental health services as determined by your governing board.*
- Currently credentialed to provide supervision or meet the criteria to provide supervision in your area, as determined by your governing board.
- Be at least 1.5 years post SPT Certification, holding a clinical caseload during that time with a focus on the application of SPT principles.
- Have completed at least 8 hours post-certification consultation or supervision with a Certified SPT Supervisor in good standing within the time between certification and starting the Supervisor program, along with a completed reference form from your SPT Supervisor, see below.*
- Complete the 3-hour course "Supervisory Skills: Foundations and Insights". (Must be completed by the application deadline of January 22, 2025.)*

Required Documentation: Documentation will need to be emailed to info@synergeticplaytherapy.com at the time you submit your application.

- Copy of your valid license, or equivalent in your state/country, to provide mental health services
- SPT Supervisor/Consultant Reference Form, to be sent to the SPT Supervisor/Consultant with whom you have completed post-certification supervision/consultation and submitted at the time of the application.
- Copy of your CE Certificate for the course "Supervisory Skills: Foundations and Insights" or proof of registration. (Your final acceptance will be contingent on the receipt of the CE Certificate.)
